FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH

HARRC
ROAD W

Horace Ove's Pressure (1974) was the first black feature film to be made in Britain.

DONIS DONDIS TRAVEL FELLOWSHIP

The Donis Dondis Travel Fellowship is awarded each year to a graduating senior, or a junior (who will receive the award upon graduation.) The award is made for exceptional merit, from any College discipline, for the purpose of defraying the cost of entering and attending a school outside the United States, or for completing a well-defined project having artistic merit.

The award will be solely on the merit of the student's prior work at the College, work submitted, and a written proposal. Recipient must provide visual and/or written progress reports or the fellowship may be withdrawn.

Applicants should confer with their department chairperson and submit the written proposal to the chairperson by Monday, March 27th.

GODINE FELLOWSHIP

The Godine Fellowship is awarded to a graduating senior, or a junior, for exceptional merit from any College discipline to help defray the cost of travelling for the purpose of: completing a well-defined project, the exhibition or publishing of work, or any project having artistic merit.

The recipient must provide a written proposal and a statement that the funding for the proposal is not generally available through State appropriations, as well as work presented for consideration.

CALL FOR RESIDENT ASSISTANTS

The College is seeking MassArt students to be Resident Assistants in the College's new dormitory which will open in September 1989. The College will be hiring (3) Resident Assistants. The administration is seeking upperclass students with specific experience in human relations, or commensurate supervisory or administrative experience in related fields. The most critical abilities are sincerity, maturity, and communication skills. Decisions must be made by April 1st, and students must be able to attend a training session on Saturday, April 22nd. Remuneration will be the equivalent of free rent and a single room in the dormitory. If you are interested, come to the Student Affairs Office (T633), to get more information or fill out an application, no later than Friday, February 10th.

STAFF "IN THE NEWS"

Debbie Loeser, the MassArt Liaison to the Boston Schools, has just been accepted to exhibit her work in the 10th Annual Paper in Particular Exhibition. This nationwide competition will highlight what is happening in the area of handmade paper. The juror, Selena Trieff, of New York selected 123 works from 1366 entries. The show will open on February 1st, and run through the month of February. It is mounted at Columbia College in Columbia, MO. The piece, which was recently displayed in President O'Neil's office, is approximately 24"x25," and is entitled, "Veils."

ALL STUDENTS WITH FALL '88 INCOMPLETES

The deadline to finish these classes is MARCH 10TH!! The Office of Academic Advising strongly encourages all students to make the effort to complete these courses. By doing so, you will avoid the extra work of a new class. You should inform your instructor that you do, in fact, intend to finish the required assignments. When these assignments are completed, submit them to the instructor with an INDIVIDUAL GRADE SHEET, available in the Registrar's Office. The faculty member will return the form to the Registrar. Any questions regarding this process should be directed to the Advising Center (T541.)

"GET YOUR DUCKS IN A ROW"

Seniors. . . Fall grades are in and you are now in your final semester. Now is the time to make sure your academic records are in order and that there will be no problems for Spring graduation. If you have questions or concerns, please feel free to make an appointment to see Jonathan Silverman by calling 232-1555, x447, or by stopping by the Advising Center (T541.)

LIBRARY NEWS

The Library has resumed normal semester hours. The Spring schedule is Mon-Thurs. 8:30am-9pm; Friday 8:30am-5pm; Sat. 10am-4pm and Sun. 2-6pm. An updated MassArt ID is your student library card and is required for borrowing materials or using faculty reserve materials in the Library.

Special Tours: The Library is offering a special introduction to concentrated research for all students. It will include: where to look for fast information in the arts: major reference sources; how to search for printed material: the major indexes; use of microfilm and microfiche. The tour is being offered every Wednesday at 1:00pm for approximately 30 minutes. Meet Christina at the Reference Desk on the 13th floor.

Changes: The Circulation area on the 12th floor has been greatly enlarged during semester break. Beginning this semester, returns and check-outs will be handled at separate desk areas, providing more efficient and convenient service to our patrons.

WOODSHOP POLICIES FOR THE RECORD

Peggy Shapiro is the technician in the Collins Building Woodshop for this semester. While this is a college-wide facility, open to all students, there are certain policies in effect: 1. All tools are available to students for use in the woodshop if skill in the tool is first demonstrated to the technician. 2. Use of all shop machinery requires the following: At least one semester of a woodshop course in which a student received instruction in the safe operation of the machine, OR previous professional/educational experience in the safe operation of woodworking machines. This must be demonstrated to the satisfaction of the technician. 3. All tools must stay in the shop. The shop is open Mon-Thurs. Fridays class hours only. Hours are posted on the door.

NEED HELP WITH YOUR RESUME?

The Office of Career Resources will present Resume Workshops on Wednesdays, March 1st and April 12th from 12:30-1:30pm, and Tuesdays, March 28th and April 25th from 5-6pm.

BUSINESS SKILLS FOR THE ARTIST

Printouts are available on many varied business-related areas such as: Contracts, Copyrights, How to Approach a Gallery, Artists Colonies, Grant Writing, etc. Come to the Office of Career Resources for assistance in this area or counseling for finding part-time or full-time work and how to prepare for it. Career Resources is also in the process of developing an Alumni Mentor Program and have already developed a listing of alumni in many areas of art and design who are willing to see and talk to students and answer questions about different careers. Call Margaret Johnson, x384.

CHECK YOUR MAILBOXES

As you know, the budget is tight. As a result of this, you may find more mail in your 3rd floor (Tower Building) mailbox than in your home mailbox. Please make routine checks of your mailbox for important notices. If you do not have a mailbox, please notify the Office of Student Services.

COUNSELING SERVICES INFORMATION

The Waiting Room for Health and Counseling Services (T651) serves a dual purpose in that it also is a source of a wide variety of resources related to both physical and mental health. Included are brochures, catalogues and hand-outs on subjects such as: first aid, pregnancy, alcohol and drug abuse, time management, AIDS, safe sex, stress, sexuality, nutrition, date rape, dental and eye referrals. There is also a small lending library of books related to mental health and psychological well being. Feel free to drop in.

ABOUT THE NEWSLETTER

The Massachusetts College of Art Newsletter aims to provide a communications/informational vehicle for the entire College community: students, faculty, alumni, and administration alike. We will run awards, appointments, events, exhibits and short communications, as well as a weekly calendar of events and meetings relevant to our College.

Weekly issues come out on Monday afternoon and can be picked up at: the Security Desks in the Tower and Longwood Buildings, the Student Center and in the Student Affairs Office(Tower, 6th floor.)

If you have something to share, please send it to the Student Affairs Office or the Newsletter Office(Tower, 11th floor) by the deadline - Monday at 5:00pm. If you are submitting dated material, your event must take place on or after the following Monday(seven days after the deadline.) The editor requests that all submissions be short: in the one paragraph range. Remember to include times, dates, places, and prices for all events. All submissions must include a contact name and phone number.
